

BUCKS IN 100 OBJECTS QUIZ

All answers can found on Buckinghamshire Culture's Bucks in 100 Objects nomination list:

www.buckinghamshireculture.org/bucks-in-100-objects

Depending how brainy you are feeling, you may wish to attempt the quiz with, or without, accessing the website...

1. In which of Buckinghamshire's stately homes would you find a mechanical elephant, with its own Twitter account, made by a French clockmaker?

2. The Lenborough Hoard was found in Buckinghamshire in 2014, near Buckingham, but what is the hoard made up of?

3. Bridego Bridge at Ledburn in Buckinghamshire is famous thanks to what 1960s event?

4. Where in Buckinghamshire would you find replica World War 1 trenches, built for training soldiers?

5. The Lions in Aylesbury's Market Square were a gift from which famous Buckinghamshire family?

6. Which infamous club are rumoured to have met (among other places) in the golden, wooden ball on top of St Lawrence's Church in West Wycombe?

7. What is the title of the David Bowie Statue in Aylesbury, created by sculptor Andrew Sinclair?

8. What item of emergency equipment can be found on display at the Claydon estate, now restored for posterity, but originally used into the 1920s?

9. Which famous past Buckinghamshire resident came to England from Breslau in 1939?

10. Which Buckinghamshire attraction founded in 1929 contains miniature people living in miniature homes and running miniature businesses?

11. The son of which well-known Buckinghamshire residents got married at All Saints Church, Wotton Underwood in 2013?

12. Allegedly, Winston Churchill 'tweaked' (and broke off) the tail of which iconic Wycombe landmark?